

Chateau Lannessan 2004
Posted on 01 July 2014 By Gary Walsh.

For the most part, 2004 Bordeaux is starting to drink pretty well around about now, though no hurry. It's a lovely, relatively affordable vintage too. Importer:

Showing some bottle age complexity with cedar, aniseed, red and black fruit and a tobacco perfume. Medium weight, clean clear acidity, fine tannin and good length. Composed and even with an attractive mix of maturity, freshness and drinkability. A lovely example of a classic claret at a very reasonable price, considering its age.
